

Acute Health Care Certification Test Key

1. The first step when cleaning an occupied patient room is to:
 - ☒ Gather tools and put on proper personal protective equipment
 - ☐ Start applying disinfectant
 - ☐ Dump the trash
2. When a sharps is found in an occupied patient room it should be:
 - ☐ Ignored
 - ☐ Put in a non-hazardous trash Bin
 - ☒ Placed into a Sharps bin following your site specific sharps Control Procedures
3. High touch surfaces are:
 - ☐ Door knobs
 - ☐ Bed Rail
 - ☐ Over bed tables
 - ☒ All of the above
4. All high touch surfaces should be cleaned daily to prevent the spread of infectious diseases.
 - ☒ True
 - ☐ False
5. When cleaning the patient room after the patient is discharged we should clean and disinfect the entire room starting from top and working down to the floor.
 - ☒ True
 - ☐ False
6. You can use one pair of gloves for all of the rooms you are cleaning that day
 - ☐ True
 - ☒ False

7. Prior to cleaning an Emergency Department you should always wash hands and put on proper personal equipment.
- ☒ True
☐ False
8. When cleaning the Emergency Department waiting area, the surface should be cleaned and disinfected like other patient areas.
- ☒ True
☐ False
9. When cleaning the Emergency Room patient room, all waste receptacles should be cleaned and disinfected after the liner is removed.
- ☒ True
☐ False
10. If Environmental Services is responsible for turning the beds, it is important to carefully remove linens by starting on the corners and rolling the linens towards the center of the bed to limit the potential of spreading any contaminants onto other surfaces.
- ☒ True
☐ False
11. After removing linens the mattress should be cleaned and disinfected.
- ☒ True
☐ False
12. Emergency Department seating should be cleaned and disinfected to minimize the spread of infection.
- ☒ True
☐ False
13. When mopping the Emergency Department corridor floors it is important to leave an accessible path at all times.
- ☒ True
☐ False

14. It is not necessary to clean the public restroom more than once per week
- ☐ True
- ☒ False
15. Operating Rooms do not require cleaning and disinfecting between patients.
- ☐ True
- ☒ False
16. Proper personal equipment required in an Operating Room may include:
- ☐ Gloves
- ☐ Goggles
- ☐ Booties
- ☐ Scrubs or Gown
- ☒ All of the above
17. When disinfecting surfaces in the Operating Room, the disinfectant needs to remain wet for:
- ☐ 1 Minute
- ☐ You can simply spray and wipe off immediately
- ☒ As directed on the product label
18. When preparing to clean and disinfect a patient Isolation Room, it is important to identify the reason for isolation (i.e. C. diff, MRSA, TB) to help determine the steps needed to properly disinfect for the pathogen.
- ☒ True
- ☐ False
19. When finished cleaning in a patient Isolation Room the tools and supplies need to be cleaned and disinfected to prevent cross contamination.
- ☒ True
- ☐ False
20. After finishing your work, to prevent the spread of infection, the last step should always be to thoroughly wash your hands with soap and water.
- ☒ True
- ☐ False